Obituary

Mrs. Keyanna Nicole Hunt was born on April 24, 1985 in San Leandro, CA to Kelvin L. Butler Sr. and Patrice A. Fairman. She was the eldest of their two children. Keyanna enjoyed being a big sister to all of her siblings.

A very spirited young lady, Keyanna was determined, strong willed and creative. She lived most of her life in Oakland, CA. attending Oakland and Berkeley Public Schools. She graduated Berkeley High School, and was a member of an Elite Champion Basketball team.. As a teen, she worked with the Youth Advocate Program (YAP) and also participated on the Flaming Five Drill team. After High School, she attended Alabama State University. She recently returned to school to study business and complete her degree at Peralta Community Colleges.

On September 24, 2005 she was found by her soul-mate, Eric Bernard Hunt. They were married and to this union one child was born Alyssa Mae Hunt. She loved spending time with her family, and took very seriously her responsibility, especially those as a wife and Mother. Miss Alyssa said it best "She was the best Mommy Ever!" Everyone who knew Keyanna, knew that it was her pleasure to be Alyssa's mom.

Keyanna had an excellent work ethic and was working toward opening her own business. Her first job was working with children in her junior year of High School. Her business interest was Event Planning and she truly enjoyed creating beautiful decorative events. Most recently she began a business creating "Candy Tables" at various functions. She joined the In–N–Out team in 2005. She promoted very quickly to Manager, training many team members and excelling at work. Many co-workers have expressed the impact Keyanna held on their work environment both personally and professionally.

As a child, she was introduced to God and was baptized at St. Rest Baptist Church. She was also a member at Mount Zion Baptist Church, Oakland CA. where she attended with her Father, prior to joining Community Reformed Church, Oakland, CA. She was an active member of Community Reformed and worked diligently in God's Kingdom.

In 2013, Keyanna was diagnosed with aggressive Breast Cancer. Her Doctor's and other patients were amazed at her disposition. She never asked God "Why Me?" and remained positive, upbeat and motivating. She was supportive and encouraging women in all walks of life, in many instances woman twice her age. The Kaiser Medical staff quickly acknowledged what was naturally and genuinely Keyanna's personality, and asked her to assist as a Mentor in Peer Navigation for Breast Cancer. One of the youngest Navigators they've had. She volunteered at Kaiser and also became an advocate, recently celebrating the 2nd annual Breast Cancer Education and Awareness event which she sponsored with her Church. Whether volunteering at Alyssa's school, with Girls Scouts, shopping for her annual adopted family, mentoring other survivors or just encouraging a friend with her sound advice, she was always willing to be genuinely supportive

Intricate String of Love

You talked to us, you talked with us, but never about us.
You guided us, directed us, but never manipulated us.
You helped us, you taught us, you made us strong.
You are not gone from us, you are an intricate string of love woven throughout the fabric of our lives.
You are not gone from us all we need to do is look around us.
Everywhere we look everything we do reminds us of how close you really are.
You were our strength,
thank you for giving us the opportunity to be your strength.
—We love you.
